LE HAVRE
SEINE-INFRE
2E 25
MARS
82

Miss Zoe Wilbour
164 Brd Haussmann
Paris

PAR
6E 25
MARS
02
DEPART

Friday evening

March 24th 7.30 P.M.

Ma chère petite Jorta

Pas de lettre de toi to day, how is that darling, are you allready off with somebody else flirting with the Moulinus Soulove in school & forgetting us oh! c'est encore bien-tôt three days.- Josie is not very well this evening, but I dont cross with May because she told me she was going out with me tout de suite après déjeuner to go to the patisserie Lurque

with me I came up
in my room & got ready & when I was all ready she said she would not go out because she was working like a good girl Saturday 9.30 Ah Chérie nous venons à la fin de recevoir your letters what terribly swell envelopes you have so Paul thought you were going to give in; well to make up the querelle, you must have a good photo
taken & give it to him
I think May & I will go & see the ship leave for New York at 1 o'clock amongue Mrs Lecoq seemed very much shocked
and said que "cela
ne se faisait pas" deux jeunes filles seules! The weather is quite fine
to day I even think it
is warm out, yesterday
when we were on the pier I thought our heads would be blowned off
over sholders it was so fearfully windy. Good bye daddy I hope we shall have another letter this evening to break up for the lost time as we did not get any yesterday. Many kisses from your loving Mée

cross with May because
she told me she was
going out with me
tout de suite apres
déjeuner to go to the patisserie Imogue
with me I came up
in my room & got
ready & when I
was all ready she said
she would not go
out because she was
working like a good girl
Saturday 9.30 A.M. Chérie nous venons a la fin
de recevoir your letters
what terribly swell en-
velopes you have So Paul
thought you were going
to give in; well to make up the querelle you
must have a good photo
taken & give it to him
I think May & I will go
& see the ship leave
for New York at 1 o'clock Imogue Mrs Lecoq seemed very much shocked
and said que "cela
ne se faisait pas" deux
jeunes filles seules! The
weather is quite fine
to day I even think it
is warm out, yesterday
when we were on the
pier I thought our heads
would be blowned off
over sholders it was so fearfully windy. Good bye darling I hope I shall have another letter this morning to speak up for the lost time as we did not get
any yesterday Many kisses from yours loving Alice

suppose it is anything Mrs Lecog came to take Mary & I out driving we had a jolly walk on the pier met a good many english fellows & our sweet American that we use to see at Frascati he came up & spoke to us he is in business here he was very charming We met a very pretty english lady Mrs Mc Cloed that is our ~~family~~ saw at ~~Frascatty~~ I was awfully

March 6th 92
Friday 9.30 P.M.

My own Darling, why didn't I get a letter from you aujourd'hui. I wish I want a lettre demain matin, so have one card to hope it will get one. C'est si long toute une journée sans vous voir, n'est-ce pas Amour, Jessie didn't feel [illegible] as usual this afternoon I truly hope I would wake up tomorrow and know that I have a little [illegible]. Car Mama told me this afternoon que l'enfant ne sera pas [illegible] le [illegible] And [illegible] This morning we did not go out car the weather was bad. Mama after breakfast wrote and I went for a little walk on the ice, and met two of the Windsome girls considerate! Am I not a silly silly little girl to my darling I do not think you you are an old Granny in the slightest for that part in your letter - So dear Dearie Amours has gone back to the old habit of dreaming. Hope it never told my darling you must take good care of yourself. [illegible] as far as you [illegible] will answer the rest of the questions give to the remainder. In haste [illegible]

March 4th '92
Friday 2.20 P.M.

My own darling, why didn't I get a letter from you this morning? I wish I was a little mouse, darling, so have one card. I hope I will get one, c'est si long toute une journée sans avoir un mot de ton Amour, Josie did not feel aussi bien que usual this afternoon. I truly hope I would wake up tomorrow and know that I have a little letter. Car Mama told me this afternoon que l'enfant ne sera pas ici de avant dix ou douze jours. This morning we did not go out car the weather was bad. Mais after breakfast Josie and I went for a little walk on the Cliff, we met two of the Windsor girls contente! Am I not a silly silly little girl my darling. I do not think que you are an old Granny [illegible] for that part in your letter. So ton petit Amour has gone back to the old habit of dreaming. Now it is very cold my darling, you must take good care of yourself. C'est ce que [illegible] toutes les questions que je te demande. Tu [illegible] beaucoup dit qu'il retournerait en Amérique soon - So and I want to go and see the boat off for America tomorrow we told it to Miss Leroy but she was so shocked at the idea of walking alone on the pier, qu'elle m'a dit que cela ne se faisait pas! mais tant pis, cela m' est bien égal I suppose that we will go all the same - My darling à quoi penses-tu le plus depuis que nous t'avons quitté a ma Mimi, ou bien à moi? You have been alone hier et aujourd'hui.

Were you good my darling? You did not flirt at all dis? You must write and tell me everything tu sais Amour

Will you be more loving with me when I go back to Paris darling? You were not a bit so depuis quelque temps did you love me less because I was so disagreeable dis? I am so happy quand tu me montre que you love me - none adorée You must answer all these questions car il y a quelque temps déjà que je voulais te les demander. Saturday 10th My own love Je viens de recevoir ta lettre it is a very sweet one adorée When I read que you had been to school que I did have a little cross look mais lorsque j'ai lu que you did not see her I laugh, oui c'est vrai j'étais a faire! Je le sais, mais cela ne fait rien - Mamma sends her love to you all & a long loving kiss to my darling de la petite Mamma

Mamma

dit qu'il retournerait en Amérique soon — So that I want to go and see the boat off for America tomorrow we told it to Mrs Leroy but she was so shocked at the idea of walking alone on the pier, qu'elle nous a dit que cela ne se faisait pas! mais tant pis, cela nous est bien égal! I suppose that we will go all the same — My darling à quoi penses-tu le plus depuis que nous nous sommes quittés, à ma train, ou bien à moi? You [illegible] hier et aujourd'hui. Were you good my darling? You did not flirt at all dis? You must write and tell me every-thing tu sais amour.

Will you be more loving with me when I go back to Paris darling? You were not a bit so depuis quelque temps did you love me less because I was so disagreeable dis? I am so happy quand tu me montre que you love me-more adorée you must answer all these questions car il y a quelque temps déjà que je voulais te les demander. Saturday 10th My own love je viens de recevoir ta lettre it is a very sweet one adorée When I read que you had been to school que I did have a little cross look mais lorsque j'ai lu que you did not see her I laugh, oui c'est vrai j'étais à faire! Je le sais, mais cela ne fait rien — Mamma sends her love to you all & a long long kiss à my darling de la petite femme

Jeanne

and Louise Lecoq. Et quand nous sommes rentrées Mrs Lecoq came and as Josie & Mamma were going out driving in Louise's carriage Mrs L asked Leo and I to go out driving with her, and malgré que we did not much care for it, we went nous sommes allées en voiture jusqu'à la Pier et là nous avons marché et guess who we met! Our nice little American fellow que nous avons rencontré l'année dernière ici, ~~and~~ that came to see us off sur le bateau lorsque nous avons quitté pour l'Angleterre We were quite astonished to see him car il nous avait